PRODUCTIVE SLEEP™

GET MORE OUT OF THE SLEEP YOU GET™

Our new sleep formulation PRODUCTIVE SLEEP™ is designed to equip your brain with supplies of sleep-enhancing natural substances to help make it easy to just let go and slip into a daytime nap or nighttime sleep without a struggle, even at the end of or during a day that may be full of hard work and stressful events.

Good sleep doesn't have to be just a dream.™ Get more power from your nap!™ Get more out of the sleep you get with PRODUCTIVE SLEEP™ HUNDREDS of substances, both natural and synthetic, have been tried over the past few thousand years as sleep-inducing agents. Many were successful in inducing unconsciousness. Why, then, did they generally fail to provide the user with a feeling of rested refreshment the next morning? The answer is complex, but the bottom line is that no one substance can perform the very complex task of helping you to have a more refreshing nap or night's sleep.

SLEEP is far more than a daily period during which you lapse into a lengthy state of unconsciousness. It is a highly programmed mental state that engages all parts of your brain in a complex pattern of activity. "... sleep is no longer considered a passive resting state, but rather an active brain state essential for neuronal plasticity." If all has gone well, you awake with a sense of refreshment and well-being, having been prepared for a new day by a night of productive sleep. New research has reported beneficial effects on cognition (particularly memory) of daytime naps, as well. Then, after you fall asleep, PRODUCTIVE SLEEP™ helps your brain navigate nature's restorative sleep pathways. PRODUCTIVE SLEEP™ was designed because there are a lot of things to worry about these days and we really need good sleep. I tried PRODUCTIVE SLEEP™ in order to decide if Life Priority should market PRODUCTIVE SLEEP™.

"I knew after the 1st time I used Productive Sleep™ the value. I experienced a deep restful sleep. As co-owner of Life Priority, a small business, I have many jobs and "STRESS" is a daily obstacle. Productive Sleep™ is a must to energize my brain and make me more productive for my health and the health of my customers!"
